Dear Sister Allen:

Your kind letter was deeply appreciated. It is always a thrill to know that in some small way I have helped others think more seriously about their spiritual obligations.

Your daughters conducted themselves according to the highest ideals of Christian living. They were a source of inspiration to all of us. It is unusual to find girls of their ages so genuinely interested in the work of the Lord.

I know that their deportment and spiritual concern is an accurate reflection of the kind of home they have. Please accept my gratitude for allowing them to come to North Bay. It was a distinct honor to work with them and to get to know them better.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
