Dear Folks:

Your personal report about the Winnipeg Campaign was especially enjoyed. I know it must have been a great thrill to have Bill Banowski in your city and I also know that all your work on behalf of the campaign must have contributed materially to its success. I am glad to know that you have received your copy of "The Praying Christ" and hope that you do enjoy it. Thank you for remembering me and for the very pleasant letter.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
