Dear Brother & Sister Bullington:

The meeting last week with Granny White was a rich experience for me. Among the many pleasant things my family and I will remember was the visit in your home. Your Christian hospitality and delicious food is remembered by us with thankfulness.

We are happy to know of your involvement in the work of the Granny White congregation. She is a great church, and I know that it is because of responsible members like yourselves that she is able to do so much good.

Thank you for inviting us into your home. It was a pleasure to visit with you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
