Mrs. Mary E. Jones
Hillhaven Convalescent Home
1120 West La Palma
Anaheim, California

Dear Mrs. Jones:

In preparation for the "Christ for Today" crusade to be conducted September 5 through 12 in Anaheim's Pearson Park amphitheater, I have been reading The Bulletin, your Anaheim newspaper. I have just read with interest the celebration held in honor of your 102nd birthday. Let me join Governor Brown and other California dignitaries in wishing you the best for the days ahead.

It will be my privilege to speak to Orange County and southern California citizens during the dates mentioned above. In a day of great spiritual crisis in America, I am looking forward to the opportunity to publicly present the thrilling and challenging message of Christ to your community.

Accept my sincerest best wishes for your continued good health and life.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
