Mr. L. D. Webb
9782 Ramm Drive
Anaheim, California

Dear Brother Webb:

I trust that the sermon topics have reached you by this time, and that plans for our September crusade are already in full gear. All your reports to me sound as if our effort together is going to be a wonderful experience for all concerned.

I would like to suggest that you consider the possibility of inviting Brother Bill Fox's wife to come with him for the meeting. In talking with Bill by phone the other night, he indicated a very understandable reluctance to ask if transportation could be provided for her. Though I know this would not be considered absolutely essential to the campaign effort, I do feel that it is worth considering and would like to ask that, if at all possible, you invite her.

I have received the first copy of the Anaheim paper and feel that it is going to help "condition" me to place the lessons each night in a southern California context.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
