Dear John:

I have not heard from you concerning final plans for the Arizona Lectureship. I do hope that my being unable to come before Thursday, December 30, has not caused any major problem with your schedule. As now planned, I will arrive in Tucson on American Flight 353 at approximately 6:15 p.m.

I understand that my major speech is for Friday night, December 31, on the subject "Christ Calls the Total Man." I have made arrangements to leave at 2:50 A.M., January 1, on American Flight 134. This will enable me to spend New Years Day with my family. It is almost a more important day to us than any other holiday.

Thank you for inviting me. I hope these arrangements are acceptable. I hope to see you soon, the Lord willing.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

P.S. My airline ticket, Nashville to Nashville, amounts to $205.49. Unfortunately, due to the holiday season, I could not arrange for coach reservations and had to take first class.
