Mr. Jim Bill McInteer
West End Church of Christ
3534 West End Avenue
Nashville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Jim Bill:

Your cordial letter came at a strategic time and was deeply appreciated for its encouragement. Our gospel tent meeting is now one half completed and approximately 4,000 people have attended the four nights with five baptisms and one restoration so far in evidence. We look for the closing nights to be even greater and are so glad to be assured of your prayer support of this effort.

I hope your meeting in Dodge City was a success. I know that the brethren there thoroughly enjoyed having you work with them as brethren do anywhere they are privileged to have you in their midst. My thanks again for your kind letter and unusual thoughtfulness. We send you and the good church at West End our very best regards.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
