Dear Jimmie:

Sue and I are happy to be a part of your corporation. I concur with the judgment of Doug Trowbridge in this matter. I did not understand under what name you will be incorporating. It might be best to simply make it a non-profit corporation rather than incorporating under the name Church of Christ. However, your legal advisor will know best about that.

We are happy to help in any way possible. In Michigan last week and again in New York, I heard highly complimentary things about Action. As long as you continue to write straight from your heart, people will continue to respond.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
