Dear Jim:

It was a pleasure to hear from you and to receive the invitation of the brethren there to work in a gospel meeting with them. Unfortunately, it is going to be impossible for me to come either in the latter part of this year or during next year. The earliest possible dates that I could come are 1971, 1972.

We have had to make some radical changes in my personal schedule because of a situation that has developed here during the past year and half. It was also now planned for me to move to Abilene in September, 1966, which again explains one of the reasons I must spend as much time as possible at home.

Your plans for an area-wide meeting in Washington sound great. The man who preaches in the nation's capitol should be thoroughly prepared and the best possible man for the hour. I am convinced that there are men better able to do this job than myself and urge that you consider them. My prayers and best wishes go with you and the good church in Arlington.

Fraternally yours,
