Dear Brother Choate:

I am not even sure that this letter will reach you, and I know that if it does it will be several weeks. We have been continually concerned for the welfare and safety of you and your family since learning of the hostilities between India and Pakistan. During our recent Orange County, California, "Christ for Today" campaign, special prayers were offered up publicly at my request for you and other workers in that area of the world.

I have continued to respect and admire the great work which you are doing. It is with deep concern and continual prayers that I write this letter to reassure you of our interest. Please let me know if there is anything that I can do to help your situation there. I have just read of your desire to find a replacement for the work there. I will certainly keep this in my prayers and hope that God will provide the man needed before the time for you to return home. God bless you and help you is our concern.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
