Dear Ira:

The letters received from you and your good wife recently were appreciated. I know how full and demanding your schedule must be. It was unusually considerate of you to write.

There is a great wind of revival blowing through our brotherhood today. Much of this great resurgence is due to your dedicated and committed efforts. Please know that my personal prayers go with you and your exceptional influence wherever brethren are privileged to have you. Feel free to call on me at any time if I can offer personal assistance.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
