Dear Herman:

Thank you for noticing the article about my new work with Herald of Truth radio in the recent issue of the Tennessean. It was highly considerate of you to clip the article and send it to me.

I treasure our friendship very highly and hope that my move from Tennessee will in no way diminish my contacts and associations with people of your caliber in the state government and other areas of Tennessee public life. Due to the nature of my work as radio speaker for this 500 station network, I hope to be back in Nashville and Tennessee often.

I look forward to our continued friendship throughout the many years to come.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
