Mr. Harold Bruns
331 West Whiting
Fullerton, California

Dear Brother Bruns:

I was distressed to learn during our recent "Christ for Today" effort that you would be unable to attend the services. I also heard from many people of your tireless efforts on behalf of this great work. I had mentioned to your wife the possibility of my getting to visit with you, but our schedule became heavier each day. I flew back east early Monday morning following the last service on Sunday evening and was, therefore, unable to come into your home.

Thanks so much for your efforts and I know that your family has been blessed and thrilled by all that this good work has done.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
