Dear Dr. DeHoff:

I did appreciate your recent letter clarifying the situation with the new Bellwood Church of Christ. I had felt free to express my interest to Sister McCrary. I do regret causing you the difficulty of having to write. I know that your time is taken with many valuable concerns.

We wish you and the Bellwood Church the very best. Thank you for your words of encouragement. I am simply attempting to fulfill the opportunities that God has given me and realize that whatever is done will be because He worked through me as I know you believe in the case of your own labors for the cause of Christ.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
