Mr. Garner Flatt
Route 1
Granville, Tennessee

Dear Brother Flatt:

It is with much regret that I write to request that I be released from our September 11-18, 1966, gospel meeting with the Forks of the Creek congregation. I will be moving to Abilene, Texas, on September 1, 1966, to work full time with the Herald of Truth radio program. Because of this arrangement and other burdens here, I have already had to cancel eight to twelve meetings between now and next September. I had looked forward to our meeting but must ask that I be released from the obligation.

Please extend my best wishes to the congregation. I hope that they will understand this request and will graciously grant it. I will look forward to your reply.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
