Dear Brother Cox:

Thank you for your recent letter and invitation to submit the material mentioned by Don Holten. We did enjoy the very unique three days with the men at the Bible Directors' Workshop at which time I spoke on "The Minister at Church, The Minister at Home, and the Minister with God."

As soon as time permits, I will send you this material in an expanded form for serial publication. Enclosed you will find several sermon outlines that might be worth using in the Ministers' Monthly.

Thank you so much for this invitation to submit this material and feel free to exercise your editorial discretion toward it.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
