Dear Frances:

I regret not answering your generous invitation sooner but out-of-town commitments prevented me doing so. It now appears that Sue will be unable to come with me to Knoxville. John Stites, Roger Fisher, myself and possibly one other man will make the trip on Monday afternoon. We would enjoy the hospitality of your home and family following the Monday evening service if acceptable to you.

We feel our schedule will not allow us enough time if we attempt to arrive in time for dinner but would thoroughly enjoy visiting with you after the services. It now appears that we will spend the night in Knoxville in a cottage provided by someone in the congregation and will then return to Cookeville following the Tuesday evening service.

You might check with Brother Yates concerning this matter to prevent any mix-up in schedules. We look forward to visiting with you and working with the congregation.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
