Dear Gene:

Only recently have I learned of your tragic automobile accident which occurred in August of this year. We thank God for the recovery of both you and Nancy. What a great gift faith is when one faces the loss of a daughter or other loved one. I have thought of you often since learning of this sad news. Please accept my sincere concern and sympathy.

Your gift to Boles Home is just another of many indications of the love and concern you have for God and his will among men. We send you our continual prayers and best wishes. Let me know if there is anything I can do.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
