The Elders
Findlay Church of Christ
Sparta, Tennessee

Dear Brethren:

Your preacher, Brother Kenneth Thomas, reminded me recently of my verbal commitment to preach in your 1966 gospel meeting. Due to my own forgetfulness and your failure to confirm our verbal agreement by a letter, I failed to schedule it.

However, circumstances during the next twelve months have required that I cancel twelve meetings previously scheduled. The demands of our work here as well as the additional burden of Herald of Truth radio sermons require that I request your release from my obligation to you. I regret having to make this request but find it the only course I can take in regard to my personal health as well as the condition of the work here.

I trust you will give this letter an affirmative answer and that God will bless you and direct you in finding a good man for next year's meeting.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
