Dear Brethren:

I deeply appreciated the opportunity of working with you in a gospel meeting during the past week. I came to have a greater understanding of your work and interest in the Kingdom's expansion.

You were very kind and liberal in your financial support for the meeting. This is within the tradition of your continuing concern for all who preach God's word, and I am grateful.

Thank you for inviting me to return for another meeting. I have tentatively scheduled November 3-10, 1968. I am certain that I cannot give you two full Sundays but may be able to work according to the schedule used during the meeting just completed. I will be happy to hear from you relative to this date or another that you might suggest for 1968. It was such a pleasure to be with you and I anticipate another pleasant association.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
