Dear Brethren:

I am thrilled to learn of the great plans for our Orange County crusade. I have noticed with interest the number of your brethren who are significantly involved in these plans. I sincerely hope that the total membership of the congregation will enter into prayer and a work on behalf of the effort to reach lost souls.

I remember with deep gratitude and appreciation your wonderful invitation to come and work with you. I know that we could have enjoyed a satisfying and exciting relationship, but matters have since vindicated the decision I made at that time. It was the will of God, I am convinced, not to accept your more than generous offer. Please be assured of my undying appreciation and continued best wishes for a growing work for the Lord in the congregation you lead.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
