Dear Edgar:

I appreciate your sending the articles and enclosing the picture. I definitely agree that it should be taken out of circulation!

We have had very little work done in middle and east Tennessee on behalf of the program. This year Harold Romey, an attorney and gospel preacher in McMinnville, will attend the workshop. He should be of great help upon returning. I have also enlisted the aid of a very fine young man in our community who is just awakening to his spiritual responsibility, Walter W. Carlen of Carlen Motor Company and a member of the Broad Street Church. He has already agreed to visit churches in our area. I have also suggested the name of Quinton Horton, a member of the Laurel Avenue congregation in Knoxville. The Abilene office is contacting him this week. These three men should provide us some excellent workers and you may want to contact them yourself in addition to what is being done from Abilene.

You should wait until after the workshop to determine what visits need to be made in this area.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
