Dear Dean:

Let me express my appreciation for the personal contributions you made to our recent "Christ for Today" campaign. I remember the kind and understanding way you handled responses each night and the general encouragement this work gave to me.

Please let me congratulate you on your new opportunity at Northside and assure you of my continuing interest and prayers for your great work with that congregation.

Thank you for our friendship and may the Lord provide many more opportunities in the future for our mutual association and effort.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
