Dear Dr. Allport:

I have recently read with extreme interest and profit your study of "The Religious Context of Prejudice" which appeared in the May, 1967 issue of Pastoral Psychology and in the April 22, 1967 issue of "Information Service" of the National Council of the Churches of Christ.

In this excellent study you mentioned a questionnaire you have developed to access the degree of extrinsic and intrinsic religious faith. Has this twenty-one item scale been published in any of your published works? If so, could you refer me to the one in which it appears. If this scale has not been published, is it available and could I purchase a copy of it from you?

Thank you so much for your highly stimulating and unusually incisive study of religion and prejudice.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
