Mr. Joe Adams
Adams' Plastics
Cookeville, Tennessee

Dear Joe:

I have just talked with Coach Bullington and he is thrilled at your generous response to his football program's needs. Abilene Christian College is most fortunate to have a man like Wally Bullington and a friend like Joe Adams. Wally could hardly contain himself as he told me about his very warm conversation with you. These last few days for Wally have been trying ones as he has finished his recruitment and tried to bring some balance and semblance of order to his very tight budget. The opportunity to talk with you was one of the greatest encouragements he has received in a long time.

I want to thank you personally for taking the time out of your very busy life to encourage this great Christian coach. He has blessed untold lives in a very powerful way already, and I predict in the days ahead his impact on Christian men is going to be manifold. Your encouragement and continual inspiration will prove a great blessing in the years ahead, I predict. Thank you so much for being such a good friend and brother.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
