Mr. F. Sidney Anderson, Jr.
Treasurer
Columbia Theological Seminary
Decatur, Georgia

Dear Mr. Anderson:

Thank you so much for your letter of May 16 regarding housing for me and my family in Atlanta. Your concern and interest in our behalf has been most helpful.

I believe we are going to have other housing plans in the near future, and hopefully look forward to finding something suitable for our needs. Thank you for the suggestions about Mr. Jepson's house but we would be unable to use it.

I deeply appreciate the cooperation from all the Columbia family, and look forward to our association.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Mr. Chalk:

I am writing to advise you that your application for housing has been duely considered along with others which requested a three bedroom apartment. Unfortunately we do not have one to offer you this year. The school has only four such apartments and as you may immagine we had many requests. We tried to allocate them on the basis of the number of children and their ages, etc.

Mr. Richardson tells me that Al Jepson, a member of our staff, has a two bedroom house with den located near the church you plan to serve in Decatur. Should you be interested in this you might write him immediately concerning it.

Cordially,

F. Sidney Anderson, Jr.
