Dear George:

I understand that you have recently received an invitation from Jimmy Allen, Roosevelt Wells, and Eugene Lawton to be present at a Race Relations Workshop in Atlanta, Georgia on June 27 and 28. I have also learned that you had not yet replied to your invitation when talking to Jimmy Allen recently. I want to personally urge you to do whatever it takes to your schedule to make these two days available for this effort. I believe it much more significant than the letter the three men wrote suggests. Your presence could do more than you could ever imagine in bringing our brotherhood into greater racial harmony. I certainly hope you will make your plans to go.

Memorandum: a note to help or jog the memory! (Webster)
