Mr. Joe Bell
Room 2204
New Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C.

Dear Joe:

Thank you so much for all you did to help me during my recent visit to Washington. You went to extreme lengths in welcoming me into your office and providing me every consideration. I know that my visit imposed on you and your already overcrowded schedule. Your willingness, however, to give me the necessary time to answer all my questions and provide directions will always be appreciated.

I am convinced that our visit with Senator McClellan was the highlight of the week. I am thankful for your arrangement of this meeting and for accompanying me. Your presence, I'm sure, caused the Senator to loosen up and talk as openly as he did.

I have taken the liberty of enclosing each of our lessons from Herald of Truth radio for the month of March.

Give my best regards to your secretary, to the Senator's secretary, and to other associates of yours who were so helpful to me.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Speaker
