Dear John:

In telephone conversation today with George Foster, I discussed our interest in planning an informal get together each year at "Round-Up" time.

He expressed considerable interest in the idea, and offered to assist by furnishing us names (and current addresses where possible) of past state council members. As his office is short on secretarial help at this time, it may be several weeks until I hear from him.

Nell and I thoroughly enjoyed our visiting with you and Sue in Knoxville. Your presentation to the assembly was most impressive and meaningful to us, and I am sure it was equally so with the teenagers.

With warmest personal regards,

Ernest Bacon
