Dear Pierce:

I thoroughly enjoyed your excellent article in the Firm Foundation of November 19. Thank you so much for poking at some of our sacred cows. I have long felt exactly as you expressed your sentiments in that article.

I am convinced that we must be able to take this kind of look at ourselves in order to be completely honest with truth. How often do we, in an attempt to guard the Bible with great jealousy, fail to really let all of its truth penetrate the totality of our lives.

I send you and your family my deepest personal respect and love. I had an opportunity to see the Hoke Whites just last week-end in a very short visit to Cookeville. I hope and pray that your work is going well.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
