Batsell, you will be receiving a special report from Bob Scott relative to the request you made about radio listener response. This letter, however, is so unique and so clear regarding the points made by your elders regarding the July radio sermons that I thought you ought to have a copy of it immediately. Please use your own best judgment regarding what ought to be done with it. I have entrusted it to you for the best use, according to your judgment, that can be made of it.

This gospel preacher is not only well-known, respected and loved by all whom I know that know him, but he is also a graduate student at Johns Hopkins Univ. and has revealed himself to be a dedicated student as well as sensitive Christian.
