Dear brother Beavers:

How thoughtful of you to write on August 29, after the Florida Seminar. I have just visited with Rogers Bartley, of the 14th Street church in Gainesville, who told me of the wonderful things happening within your group. I know God is making your ministry a fruitful and effective one. Your willingness to come to the Seminar on the heels of the Herald of Truth workshop revealed a spirit of devotion in your own life that must be stimulating to those who hear you preach.

I send my best personal regards and my gratitude for your encouragement. I am happy to know that in some small way my participation in the seminar has been helpful to you.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk

Dear Bro. Chalk,

I thank you for sharing with us in the Fla. Evangelism Seminar. I really did appreciate your lessons on Colossians. I am also grateful for the evidence of your faith & commitment in your message at the Sharing Banquet. Your lesson on "Jesus, the Revolutionary" was really a challenging lesson. Our group is really fired up. This coming Lord's Day we begin to meet at 8⁰⁰ AM for 1 1/2 hours Study & Sharing. This is to be each Lord's Day. Our group (15) is already out sharing their faith. We are praying for you and covet your prayers in our behalf - that we maybe totally dedicated to Christ and His Cause.

Sincerely,
Dexter Beavers
