Dear sister Britton:

Thank you so much for all the encouragement you gave me during our recent gospel meeting at Southside. Your smiling face and your words were a constant source of inspiration.

You were so thoughtful to give me Wallace Hamilton's Serendipity. I had not read the book, even though I had known about it for some time. Thank you for this gesture you made in getting so many members of the congregation to sign it.

I send you my prayers and best wishes for your continued service in God's kingdom and your influence as a Christian upon all those with whom God brings you in contact.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
