Dear John Allen:

Let's definitely count on having our session with Dr. Young on the 29th of March. I think you should plan to fly in on the evening of the 28th. Your best connections will probably be to Los Angeles rather than San Diego. In fact, you will probably have to come to Los Angeles first on the way to San Diego. Why don't you try to find something arriving here in the late afternoon or early evening of the 28th? We will pick you up after work at the Los Angeles airport and then drive to La Costa and spend Friday night and have all day Saturday together. We can spend Saturday night at La Costa or come back to Los Angeles. We will count on you to preach somewhere on Sunday.

If you would prefer since you are going to have to be away from the family for several days, you could fly out early Saturday morning and we will have Saturday night, Sunday, and part of Monday if we need it.

Let me know when you will arrive.

Cordially,

Bill
