I have just completed my reading of the February issue of the 20th Century Christian and I wanted to write you a note and congratulate you on the wonderfully, fine job that you did in putting it together. The theme is most timely and I thought the articles were exceptionally fine.

I visited your parents for just a few minutes some two or three weeks ago when I was up there to pick up Big Mother. I always enjoy visiting with them but somehow we never have a great deal of time to spend together.

I'm sure that you and Sue are beginning to get anxious with reference to your forthcoming move. I trust that all will go well with you and yours and that you will find many wonderful opportunities to serve Christ in the Atlanta area. Thanks again for the good job in the 20th Century Christian.

In Christian love,

Brad,
