Human Relations Forum
Oklahoma Christian College
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma
January 26, 1969

Dear Brother Chalk,

The Oklahoma Christian College Human Relations Forum, an organization formed to promote understanding between all peoples and to encourage a better campus spirit of love and brotherhood, is planning a special week of chapel programs and evening lectures to call attention to the need for improved relations among all peoples and to effect some changes of attitudes among the citizens on our campus. We, of course, are determined to have the best speakers we can find; and we are especially concerned about moving people whose hearts and minds are closed to the oneness of mankind. We would like very much for you to be one of the principal speakers during this week which is scheduled for February 10-14. Our preference is for you to be here and speak at chapel on Monday, February 10; but we may be able to make some changes if necessary. During the day you will have opportunities to meet with some of our students in smaller groups, and during the evening we are planning for a series of classes.

We consider this an important opportunity for the students and faculty of OCC, and we surely hope that you can be with us. If you will write us that you can come, we will send you information about the topics to be discussed and the subject we prefer that you consider.

Sincerely yours,

Sincerely yours,

Connie Bullington
