Dear Michelle, Mark and Michael:

It was a genuine thrill to be able to assist you in your recent response of faith in obedience to Jesus Christ. The Sunday with the Southwest congregation was made a highlight of the year for me because of your response to the gospel invitation. Thank you so much for asking me to be a part of this, the greatest experience of your lives.

The life you have chosen to live as Christians is a life that requires constant cultivation and attention (2 Peter 3:18). It is a life that must be undergirded by daily and specific prayer (Luke 18:1-8). It is a life that must experience growth and a continual process of maturing (Ephesians 5:12-14).

I send you my best wishes and prayers for a fruitful life as servants of God (John 15:1-8).

Your brother in Christ,

John Allen Chalk
