
John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence

John Allen Chalk

7-18-1968

From: Peggy Crow

Peggy Crow

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal>

Recommended Citation

Crow, P. (1968). From: Peggy Crow. Retrieved from <https://scholarworks.harding.edu/hst-chalk-personal/6415>

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the John Allen Chalk at Scholar Works at Harding. It has been accepted for inclusion in John Allen Chalk: Personal Correspondence by an authorized administrator of Scholar Works at Harding. For more information, please contact scholarworks@harding.edu.

July 18, 1968

Dear Brother Chalk,

I want to tell you how very much I enjoyed your sermon Sunday. Not only was it brilliant, but it was also inspiring. Being ^a high school student, I realize that young people today are searching. It's a topic that is often discussed, and yet the only true answer is found in Christianity. I realize this partially because I have been raised in the church. For other young people, the importance of religion is more difficult to conceive. One of the barriers is the familiar concept that religion is a "never crack a smile" affair that teaches you to see life in a negative attitude. This is a sad idea because it shows our failure to have discovered the love and joy that Christ can bring. Nothing is as attractive as a person on fire for God. For that ason I am praying that you will able to accept the position at 1/2 yard. You've got the kind of flame that not only warms those within reach, it also sets them on fire. It's the tagious quality of enthusiasm that with thrives on. I challenge you to see and watch the young people grow, both in spirit and in number. We'll always be grateful to you for your inspiring example.

Thank you for your time and consideration.
May God guide you in your decision.

Sincerely,
Peggy Crow