21 Wingate Drive
Little Rock, Arkansas
July 17, 1968

Dear Bro. and Sis. Chalk,

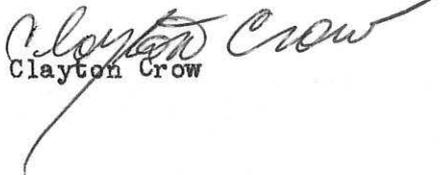

We have long enjoyed your lessons on radio whenever it was possible for us to hear them. Then last Sunday hearing and seeing you in person was such a thrill. I don't know when I have been that moved by a sermon.

We have been active members at 6th and Izard for 22 years, and we know how many wonderful people are members of this congregation. We are especially blessed in having so many hard working couples (deacons and others) in their 30's who are such outstanding Christians. With these men spear-heading the drive, this Church is now on the brink of doing its greatest work -- making its greatest gains in personal work, evangelism, benevolence, etc. To do this, we must have a capable leader, and we sincerely think you are the man for the job.

Little Rock is a wonderful place to bring up your children. This is the main reason we have lived here for 23 years. In fact, it's a pretty good place for anything.

So, please, won't you make your decision to come and work with us?

Sincerely,

Clayton Crow

P.S. Being a Bible School teacher for 13 years and the mother of two daughters, a senior in high school and a sophomore at Harding, one of my chief concerns is for the young people here at 6th and IZARD. So I plead in their behalf for you to reconsider your decision. I heard several of the teens say Sunday, "Wouldn't it be wonderful if he would be our preacher. But that would be too good to even think about."

So -- please -- reconsider your decision.

Most sincerely,

Lerry Crow
(Mrs. Clayton Crow)
