Dear Mr. Dykhouse:

Thank you so much for copies of some of Baker Book Houses excellent publications. I will be sending along some statements regarding some of them in the near future. The following paragraph is my reaction to Don W. Hillis' Tongues, Healing and You.

"Don W. Hillis has accurately and succinctly portrayed contemporary charismatic movements that are placing great emphasis on the gift of tongues and the gifts of healing. Mr Hillis' paperback, published by Baker Book House, is one that any church member can read with clarity and profit. I am pleased to see an awareness of the Holy Spirit's sovereignty in this excellent work, as well as a positive presentation of what the Holy Spirit does in the Christian's life. This approach allows one to place the gift of tongues and the gift of healing in a proper Biblical perspective where they lose much of the intensity often attached to the consideration of them in today's thought and practice. If you are confused about the Holy Spirit's role in today's Christian and Church life, you ought to read Don W. Hillis' Tongues, Healing and You."

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
