HERALD OF TRUTH

Radio and Television Programs

January 7, 1969

Mr. and Mrs. John Green
2042 Thoreau Street
Los Angeles, California

Dear Oreta, John and Family:

Your thoughtful holiday greeting was read with genuine interest. Sue and I were thrilled to know of your very full year, but it was nothing less than we expected.

I had to give careful and prayerful thought to leaving Herald of Truth. I have been deeply concerned for some time, however, about the need for further academic training. I want nothing more than full use of my potential as a gospel preacher but, at this point, I feel that it means returning to school, which in this case will be Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia, a suburb of Atlanta.

I send all of you my love and deep respect, and so does Sue. May God richly bless you in 1969.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist

Congratulations on your expectations in March. We will be praying for all of you.
