Dear John Allen,

Cherry and I probably kept you out a little too late Saturday night, but I just want you to know how much we appreciate you and the time you spent with us while you were in Houston. Our lives were blessed by your lessons on Eph. 2 and by talking with you at the Holiday Inn.

I feel a great change happening in our home, and I'm really excited about it. My attitude is certainly better here at W.U., and I really feel that God will work it all out (and I'm going to let Him). I have faced my work with more courage and determination — and with Christ.

I am so thankful to God for your life, your commitment, your wisdom, and for sending you to Houston. It brings great joy to our lives when we think of your surrender to Jesus.

I am definitely interested in Atlanta. As you suggested, I feel that I should give this ^{work} really my best, so I'll stay around, the Lord willing. School is definitely in the future, so please keep me posted.

Alive in Him,
Bill

P.S. May 20th Century Christian was tremendous!
