HERALD OF TRUTH
Radio and Television Programs

April 10, 1969

Miss Jan Miller
National Cathedral School
Wisconsin and Woodley Road
Washington, D.C.

Dear Miss Miller:

I thoroughly enjoyed getting acquainted with you last weekend in Trenton. To know of your attendance at the National Cathedral School and to learn that you were from Jackson, Tennessee made our acquaintance even more meaningful.

I look forward to seeing you and having an opportunity for further conversation on my next visit to Washington. Ken spoke so highly of you that I know I would find a visit with you stimulating and pleasant.

I have taken the liberty to include with this letter a bound copy of some lessons I presented last summer on Herald of Truth radio. I thought you might like to read one or more of them in view of the vital topics considered and in view of your own spiritual interests.

Thank you for coming to the Trenton Youth Meeting and for the opportunity to get to know you. Accept my best wishes for your school work.

Sincerely yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
