Dear John,

I'm almost six months late but perhaps I have "avoided the rush". My mind often reflects back to July and arising at 6:00 A.M. each Sunday morning to hear you speak on the "Racial Revolution".

As I continue to reflect on those messages I must confess that my deepest prayers of thanks are not just for one man who courageously "preached the word" ^{but} for ~~for~~ a host of elders who defied local traditions and brotherhood "policy" and let the whole council of God be proclaimed.

At first I was distressed to learn of your leaving The Herald of Truth but I am now confident that you have set your sights on another area of service in which you feel you can serve the Lord in an even greater capacity. May the Lord bless you in these endeavors.

Thanks for the call of encouragement which was an expression of your keen concern. I'm now prepared for a very fruitful period of service in the Lord's Kingdom in Marion, Ohio.

Yours in Christ
Dale
