To Teachers: International Campus Evangelism Seminar

If you are like the staff here, you are suffering from "post-seminar letdown" coupled with a very warm glow from the great spiritual overflow of the seminar.

We want you to know how very much your work with the collegians meant. So many students have expressed to us their appreciation for the very practical insights which they received from the classes. I wish we could share with you the letters which have come into the office. The next issue of GO will include excerpts, however, so I won't take up space here.

If you have not already done so, would you please send a sentence outline of your class(es). We would like you to include it in the seminar book. We will send you a copy of the seminar book if we receive your outline by February 1.

Again let me say, "Thank you," for your unselfish use of your holiday time and for your contribution to the lives of those who were in your class. May your new year be one of spiritual victory in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Sincerely,

Charles A. Shelton
Director of Evangelism
