Dear Sirs:

I would like to have any descriptive folders and explanatory materials regarding your comprehensive sex education. Much opinion is being generated in our part of the country regarding your materials now being introduced in the various school systems.

As an interested citizen and a concerned student of human sexuality, I would be very interested in any materials you make available to the general public for consideration of your proposed approach to sex education. Thank you for taking the kind of leadership that would cause the adverse reaction that I am hearing. It means, evidently, that something worthwhile is being attempted.

Sincerely,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
