Dr. Joe Schubert
Oklahoma Christian College
Eastern Memorial Road
Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Dear Joe:

I am personally interested in the future spiritual welfare of Ron Wright. I have no intention of interfering or meddling in the internal affairs of Oklahoma Christian College. Even though I may disagree with the policy decisions and administrative handling of the recent problem involving Ron, I intend to keep those opinions to myself.

My concern at this point is with whether Ron can be encouraged to grow spiritually, intellectually, and emotionally into an effective servant of Jesus Christ. To that end I am interested in seeing that his school debts at Oklahoma Christian College are paid. I hope out of this to provide Ron the encouragement to better prepare himself for the tasks ahead. I also hope that out of my personal association with him will come a more Christ-like attitude toward you, Dr. Baird, and the school.

Would it be unethical for you to give me a full accounting of what Ron owes the college? I am not sure if you can handle this request or not and will understand if you cannot comply with it. In order to do the necessary fund-raising for this project, however, I do need to know the exact amount and some kind of specifications as to the charges (financial, of course) against Ron's account. I will certainly appreciate it.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
