Dear brother and sister Small:

Thank you for inviting Howard Adams, Joe Riggs, and me into your home Tuesday evening. The visit with the Northside congregation was inspiring and encouraging. I found all of you to be attentive listeners and warm, friendly people.

I hope our visit in your home somehow gave you a new direction to take in your efforts to revive the congregation spiritually. I am thrilled by the kind of interest you have and by the wonderful experiences the Lord has led you into during the past six or seven years. I assure you of my prayers for your efforts to bring a new sense of spirituality and mission to your brothers and sisters in Christ.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
