Dean of Student Affairs

Dear Joe:

Thank you so much for the sensitive and honest handling of the Human Relations program at Oklahoma Christian College. The twenty-four hour period during which I was on the campus was marked by dignity and respect that must always characterize the Christian. Your leadership in this area must have been one of the principle reasons why such a good attitude prevailed, both on the part of whites and blacks.

I salute Oklahoma Christian College for having Black Heritage Week. I salute you for the relationships you have with brother Ron Wright and other black students on your campus.

I deeply regret the minor commotion caused by my coming. I want you to know that I feel no sense of having been wronged or disrespected by the College. I thoroughly understand the situation and want to urge you and your fellow administrative leaders to not hazard further criticism by having me on any programs in the immediate future. I assure you of my good will and my interest in the College. Call on me when I can do anything to assist you that will not further irritate your contributors or patrons.

Your brother,

John Allen Chalk
Radio Evangelist
