Dear Brethren:

For some time, I have been intending to write to express my personal appreciation for the generous way in which you have shared John Allen Chalk with the Campus Evangelism program over the past year or two.

You cannot know how greatly John Allen has influenced thousands of college students for good. It seems he has a natural ability to communicate with them and to relate to them. I know there have been times when our requests have imposed upon your production schedule and have made heavy demands upon John Allen himself, and I simply want to thank you and let you know that we appreciate it.

May God bless you in your work to make the Good News known to millions via Herald of Truth.

Sincerely,

Rex C. Vermillion
